M S U Through Color

The year started for students with freshmen meeting at the camp on beautiful Flathead Lake.

The second week of school saw the pomp and circumstance of Homecoming. The old grads, the football game, and the Homecoming Queen and Princesses were among the many things seen. The very pretty queen for this year was Phyllis Peterson.

MSU vs MSC

The biggest athletic event of the school year is the annual game with Bozeman. The first minutes of the game saw the Grizzlies faltering after two quick Bobcat touchdowns. The Grizzlies recovered to beat Bozeman and the right to possession of the trophy chest for the coming year.

The Miss MSU crown is the most sought after of the many MSU royalty positions. Judging and contests last over a period of a week. The highlight of the event is the final nights judging with its many acts. This year Roberta Tarbox, a Kappa Alpha Theta, was the winning choice.

The most extravagant set decorations and costuming made King Lear the most colorful of the MSU plays in the current season.

The Forester's Ball is one of the largest social events during fall quarter. The Ball actually begins the week before with the Forester's Convocation and Boondocker's Day. It ends with the Ball on Friday and Saturday nights.

It seemed as though mist covered the campus nine out of ten days this Fall Quarter, but on rare occasions the beautiful colors were lit by the sun.

The end of Fall Quarter brings with it the Christmas Convocation with the University Choirs. Also the women's living groups can be heard caroling at the men's dorms and the fraternity houses.

But most students spend the last few moments of the quarter studying for the coming tests.

When Winter arrives almost everyone stays inside except for the weekend ski enthusiasts and a few hardy individuals at snow sculpture time. Basketball is the big sport during winter quarter. This year with a new coach and a rash of injuries, the Grizzlies fared badly.

Midway through winter quarter, the new upperclass women's dorm was opened. Eloise Knowles Hall's interior besides being functional is also very decorative. It houses 240 women and even has a storage room for formals.

With the coming of spring, many students thoughts changed from studies to other subjects. On many a night a serenade for a pinned or engaged girl could be heard at one of the women's living groups.

What nicer pastime than walking and talking on a beautiful spring day if you have a pretty companion.

You see many students making the most of the good weather by studying, sunbathing, or doing any other activity that will keep them outside.

The final step for MSU students, graduation for seniors and summer vacations for the others. The last minute check before the last step in most college careers.

The start of the long walk.

At the graduation ceremony, everyone is alert and excited or are they?

But we'll let sleeping dogs lie for another year.

ACTIVITIES

Dr. Thomas leads an informal discussion about the careers in chemistry at Freshman Camp.

My Diary:

SEPTEMBER: Under the guidance of student counselors, newcomers are introduced to the ways of higher education at Freshman Camp on Flathead Lake. Along with the seriousness of previewing college, comes the last fling of the summer before settling down to the painstaking duties of the student.

SEPTEMBER 24: The grasslands of MSU are invaded by a thundering herd of hungry freshmen for Orientation Week. Starting with confusion, and ending in confusion, each new citizen of the university somehow manages to acquaint himself with his new home.

SEPTEMBER 27-28: Registration, the most frustrating day in college is like standing in the ticket line while the movie is half over.

OCTOBER 2: At the end of Formal Rush, 267 Greek prospects decided to be fraternity men or sorority girls

OCTOBER 1: The "good life" ceases with classes beginning. At 8 AM, wide eyed freshmen and blurry eyed upperclassmen head in the general direction of their first class.

In painting the "M", some of the young cubs get out of hand and paint everything in sight that is female.

Phyllis Peterson, 1962 Homecoming Queen is all smiles as she is presented a bouquet of roses from Louis Armstrong at his concert on October 5. [Photo by Bruce Mc Gowen]

"Mums for the alum." These delicate flowers on the pretty ladies brightened the campus for the day.

OCTOBER 6: To make the homecoming successful, the Grizzlies topped the Vandals from Idaho 22-16.

OCTOBER 5: Among the campus loves to compete for Homecoming Queen were: Helen Cain, Ann Erickson, Phyllis Peterson, Gwen McLain, and Cathy Ryan. Each girl added a touch of glamor to the festivities.

OCTOBER 5: Five exceptional alumni were honored by the university. Those receiving awards were: Ronald S. Kain (1922) Mary Kimball (1928), E. G. Poinexter (1919), and Herman G. Stark (1926).

OCTOBER 9: Twenty-nine sophomore men joined the ranks of the dedicated when they were tapped Bearpaws at the first SOS of the school year.

OCTOBER 10: Sue Gantebien emceed the activities of the WRA Gym Jam, an introductory meeting of the coeds with the opportunities of the Women's Recreational Association in the Women's Center.

Part of SX Derby Day is this honey—Rick Richter, winner of the masquerade production.

On the march, the Kams and Dreigs went over, through, around, and in between all the rest of the parade.

OCTOBER 11: In line with the growing need for guerrilla warfare, the Army ROTC organized a counter-guerrilla platoon for those cadets interested.

OCTOBER 12: Divide sixty beauties by two and what do you get? Two of the sharpest looking, well coordinated drill teams in the Northwest—the K-dettes and the Angel Flight Squadron of MSU.

Among the alumni to revisit his Alma Mater, was Dr. Harold Urey. Dr. Urey was the 1934 Nobel prize winner in Chemistry for discovering heavy water.

Ed Harper, MSC's student association president dropped his drawers after the Silvertip upset over the Bobcats.

NOVEMBER 10: Tours, art shows, lectures, and a banquet were the main points of the agenda when the students turned out to honor their folks on Parent's Day. Highlighting the day was the MSU-MSC football clash. The Silvertips sent the Cats home to Bozeman with their tails between their legs.

After Dr. Schuster's lecture, the parents were treated to home movies by Dean Clow.

O'Leary and Davis team up to point out campus landmarks to the folks.

NOVEMBER 15: In order to inform interested students on the opportunities of governmental careers, representatives from 18 federal agencies lectured and led discussions in a program brought to the campus by the placement bureau.

NOVEMBER 16: King Lear, the second Masquer production of the year, opened at the university Theater.

NOVEMBER 17: The traditional Spur "Slave Sale" started with the slam of a gavel. Auctioneer Elton Adams sold the men the girls for the morning to do their odd jobs.

DECEMBER 5: Like the walls of Jericho, the proposed student Union collapsed when attacked by the students. In a record vote the pupils decided the fate of the new building.

DECEMBER 7: Although the university gave the student body a present of finals for Christmas, the week's traditions marched on. Bearpaws and Spurs led the singing at the SOS; the girls caroled the men's living groups; and the University Choir held its Christmas Concert.

It's just not done. Not just sitting on a fence at the Forester's Ball, at least. This becomes the rowdiest weekend of the year when the foresters let themselves go.

History of art, taught by Jim Leedy, breaks down formality and becomes one of the more interesting courses in school.

Our only purpose for going to college is to acquire an education. With all the activities happening and temptations popping up, sometimes we wander from our trail. Usually after the weekend, we bounce back to the books and try to get an education. It's a good life, but there's a heap of study and sweat behind every student and piles more to come.

Classes and Study:

After class, Patti Moore and the guys analyze each other's subjects.

Cramming or just a last look before a test? The coffee at the lodge is a great assistant.

MSU President H. K. Newburn

TO THE STUDENTS OF MONTANA STATE UNIVERSITY:

I would like to take this opportunity to extend greetings from Mrs. Newburn and myself to each of you who has been a part of Montana State University community during the year portrayed by this publication. Measuring up to its earlier high standards, the 1963 Sentinel does an outstanding job of recording the activities of the past academic year. I am sure that you will find it to be a meaningful remembrance for what has been an important period in your life. As you enjoy it now, and in later years, I am sure that you will more fully realize the influences of your associations with faculty and fellow students. Certainly it is our hope that the University has provided the kinds of learning experiences that will help you in your future endeavors. I am sure that the faculty would concur in the hope that your year, as symbolized by this publication was a most profitable one.

Knowles Hall

Midway through winter quarter, 240 women students were moved into the new dorm Knowles Hall. Modern in every way, Knowles has special rooms for typing, study, laundry, and even a special room for keeping formal dresses under controlled conditions. Also to help beautify and make more versatile, there are sun porches and magnificent lounges.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Associated Students

The student body of Montana State University is governed by elected officers and representatives from the student body who work together in a group known as Central Board. Under the guidance of the officers and Central Board, considerable achievements were realized during the past year. Student membership on the traffic court was increased and initial traffic fines were lowered considerably. Next year we students will have free usage of various university recreational facilities due to an agreement established between ASMSU and university officials. During fall quarter, much time and effort by committees and Central Board was concentrated on plans for a new student union building. After a hotly contested battle, the student body defeated the $1,800,000 referendum by a large margin.

This meeting must not be too serious!

Good old registration days!

Support the Grizzlies!

Central Board

Central Board members are elected annually by members of their respective classes. Various committees under Central Board supervise and coordinate all campus activities. Lecturers, exhibits, films, contests, dances, rallies, and traditions are promoted through these groups. The student publications, Kaimin, Sentinel, Venture, and "M" Book are controlled through the committees also.

CENTRAL BOARD. Left back, left to right: Kathy Johnson, Alice MacDonald, Hal Woods, Spike Fuller, Bari Lynn Bartelson. Left front: Jim Schultz, Marshall Dennis, Dale Schwankie, Bob Ulvedal, Bonnie Bowler, Brett Asselstine, George Cole. Right side, left to right: Dr. Vinocur, Joanne Hassing, Dave Brownman, Don Robinson, Ed Whitehead.

Committees

PUBLICATIONS COMMITTEE, Standing, left to right: Hal Woods, Mr. Dugan (Kaimin Advisor), Linda Coday, Bruce

Planning Board

Planning Board works on long range planning for the structure of ASMSU student government. The organization of a student curriculum committee, introduction of by-law changes, and establishment of better relations between Missoula merchants and MSU students were a few of the problems tackled by the committee this year. Rick Jones was chairman.

Oh well, first offense fees aren't as high this year.

Publications

Marge Dightman headed Publications Board this year. The committee controls and manages the four ASMSU publications—"M"-Book, Venture, Sentinel, and the Kaimin.

Special Events

World University Service

World University Service organizations have been established on many campuses throughout our country for the purpose of helping university students in other lands. Funds in excess of $600 were raised on our campus during W.U.S. Week. Activities of the week included a student-faculty talent show, a carnival-street dance, and a "Walk for W.U.S." contest. Jim Bryngelson, committee chairman, supervised the activities.

Louis Armstrong was brought to our campus during homecoming by this committee. Under the chairmanship of Stacy Swor, various mixers, registration dances, and the Miss Wool of Montana Pageant were sponsored.

Foreign Students

The Foreign Students Committee is concerned with various problems which face our numerous foreign students on campus. Programs are being coordinated with various community groups in order to benefit the foreign student. Mike Fallon was the committee chairman.

Budget & Finance

This committee is the watchdog committee of ASMSU finances. It draws up the annual activity budget of $176,400 and sees to it that each organization keeps within its allocation. Winter quarter is its busiest quarter because it is then that it reviews the expenditures of all organizations and determines what to allocate them for the next fiscal year. Members from this committee also serve on the ASMSU Loan Committee, Traffic Board, and Auxiliary Sports Board. Dave Brownman headed the committee.

Parents' Day

An added attraction to Parents' Day this year was the Grizzly-Bobcat football game. The Parents' Day Committee planned and was in charge of the day's activities for visiting parents. Jeff Lenci headed the committee.

Leadership Camp

Margaret Low headed Leadership Camp Committee which makes plans and arrangements for Leadership Camp. The camp is held during spring quarter each year, being held on Flathead Lake this spring.

"M" Book

"M" Book Committee compiles the "M" Book which is sent to every new student before he arrives at M.S.U. The publication contains information about activities and traditions on campus. Doug Grimm headed the committee.

Elections Committee

This committee is responsible for supervision of all ASMSU elections. This past year they had charge of the election proceedings for homecoming queen, Freshman Class Delegates, the student union building referendum, and the ASMSU general elections. Dale Scheanke headed the committee.

Traditions Board

T-Board members are in charge of all pep rallies and sing on the steps of Main Hall. They select cheerleaders and pom pom girls, care for the victory bell, and are in charge of Dad's Day. An innovation this year, the lighting of the "M" on Mt. Sentinel during Homecoming was another of their activities. Jim Erickson was chairman.

Associated Women Students

Every woman of Montana State University automatically becomes a member of AWS and is encouraged to participate in the organization. A board of delegates from each women's living group is headed by officers which are elected by the women students. The Big-Little Sister Program sponsored by AWS helps to acquaint new women students with university life. The organization also sponsors a winter snow-sculpturing contest, the Miss M.S.U. Pageant, and the Lantern Parade which is held during Graduation Week to honor senior women.

Lear

Directed by Douglas Banks

Designer and Technical Director—Richard James Jr.

Costumes designed by Sarah James

Thomas Williams, Greg Osborn, James Morrow, James Baker, and Michael Fallon.

THE STORY OF THE PLAY

Lear, aged King of Britain, divides his kingdom between two of his three daughters. Enraged by the failure of his third and favorite daughter Cordelia to flatter him, the stubborn and arrogant Lear gives Cordelia's inheritance to her sisters and banishes her.

The power, given into the hands of the ruthless sisters, rapidly corrupts them. Lear's rash folly leads to anarchy. He is stripped of his own knights and is driven to madness.

In a closely parallel subplot, the Earl of Gloucester is duped by his son Edmund who links his fortunes with those of King Lear's two daughters. Gloucester, punished as a traitor, is sustained by his loyal son Edgar. Chaos comes to Lear, to Britain, and it seems, to the Universe.

As the Queen of France, Cordelia returns to aid her father, but she is too late. Order is restored, but not before Lear and Gloucester have passed through the extremes of suffering that bring some measure of wisdom.

WYOMING 13 MONTANA 0

Montana provided a roundup of thrills in the annual contest at Billings in a pre-season opener by holding the Cowboys to 7 points in the first three quarters. The underdog, Montana, proved to have some offensive power when they put the Wyoming team in a goal line defense early in the second half.

NORTH DAKOTA 14 MONTANA 8

North Dakota made the kill in the second half when a Sioux halfback intercepted a Grizzly pass and returned it 78 yards. They followed the first by a second in the third quarter. Werba touchdownned in the final minutes of the game to account for Montana's scores.

UTAH STATE 43 MONTANA 20

In their homecoming game at Romney Stadium, the Aggies racked up a monstrous 43 points. The third quarter showed itself to be Montana's blackest when the Utah State team rolled up three touchdowns in less than six minutes. Up to the time it was a 14-12 duel with Montana on the short end.

MONTANA 22 IDAHO 16

The homecoming honors and the Little Brown Stein were the spoils the Montana team copped when they clawed out a victory from the Idaho Vandals. A capacity crowd watched as Miller, Dodson, Dillon, Werba, and the rest of the Grizzly eleven marched over, through, and around the Idaho defense. Pass defense was the thorn in the Silvertip strength.

MONTANA 25, WEBER COLLEGE 6

Dillon boomed out 36 yards in four carries, set up the first Montana score, and started a Grizzly rampage of 25 points, against an under-manned, young Weber squad in MSU's second home game on October 13. The game was packed with action, and injuries, until the fourth quarter, when everything bogged down to a standstill.

BRIGHAM YOUNG 27, MONTANA 0

Montana, with BYU's help, fumbled and passed a win straight into the Cougars' hind pocket on the Grizzlies' own field. The Brigham Young coach duped the Grizzlies by using the nation's leading ground gainer, Elton Fortie, as a decoy. The Silvertip spirit was broken immediately after a pass was intercepted by the Utah team on their own 16 yard line, and Fortie leaped 68 Yards for the first of BYU's four touchdowns.

MONTANA 22, IDAHO STATE 15

The Montana-Idaho State game erupted with all the fury of a Hellgate wind after a tight first three quarters. In the fourth, Montana's Touchdown twins, Dodson and Dillon, broke out of the Bengal jungle to set up two Montana scores. The fourth quarter was highlighted by two exceptional runs: the first was a 46-yard touchdown sprint by Montana halfback Terry Dillon; and the second, by Idaho State's Nick Yorges, was a 65-yard gallop and, also, the last score of the game.

MONTANA 36, MONTANA STATE 19

The gifted Grizzlies could do no wrong during the mythical state championship duel at Dornblazer Field once they got going. In the beginning, with the Bobcats scoring twice in the first half of the first quarter, it looked as if the Grizzlies were about to be axed. But, the turning point in the game was when Dillon stuck his neck out and ran 22 yards on a fake punt and set up the first Silvertip score. In the second half a fired up Grizzly team tallied 22 points while holding Montana State scoreless. The Senior backfield resembled the Four Horsemen the way they galloped on the field.

Terry Dillon

In being selected to go to the East-West Shrine game in San Francisco, Halfback Terry Dillon joins the ranks of Grizzly unforgettables. Other MSU players to be chosen in the past were: 1926 quarterback, "Wild Bill" Kelly; 1926 halfback, Tom Davis; 1937 halfback, Milt Popovich; 1942 fullback, Eso Naranche; and 1958 guard, Stan Renning. Welcome to the club, Dillon!

While in San Francisco, triple threat Terry Dillon grabbed the spotlight for Montana when he intercepted a pass and turned the play into a riot that called for the East's reserve force to subdue.

FEBRUARY 1: "The Old Man and the Sea", "Butterfield 8", and the "Wizard of Oz" captured the theme of Hollywood à la mode for the snow sculpture half of Snow Weekend, sponsored by the associated women students.

The Drinking Song, from "The Student Prince" was Ann Erickson's contribution to the Nite Club Dance's entertainment.

FEBRUARY 1: To get more music scholarships, students in that golden major supervise the annual Nite Club Dance. Because the theme, Showshop 1963, parts of recent Broadway hit musicals were employed as entertainment.

FEBRUARY 9: Bearpaws and Spurs' versions of vocal valentines, Spur-o-grams, gave everyone an opportunity to whisper sweet nothings to his sweetheart for everyone else to hear.

FEBRUARY 17: Things have changed at Montana especially traditions. It's a sorry note when the student body congregates at the lodge or the library (during an hour of free time granted them by the university) while the administration is honoring the founders of this institution in a convocation at the university theater.

A massive crowd piled into the field house to view the performance of Peter, Paul, and Mary, first of the big name entertainers to be brought to MSU.

MARCH 4: Senior lawyers start practicing what has been preached at the Moot Court sessions. Like actual courtroom cases, the Moot Court comes completely furnished with witnesses and a jury composed of the students of MSU:

Reverend John Foster recites the last rites of Kidette Trophy in Delta Sigma Phi's mock funeral to return a stolen trophy.

FEBRUARY 23: The most outstanding girls of the class, Pat Clark, Ruth Ostenson, Carol Skalsky, and Dorothy Pemberton were honored at Matrix Table, sponsored by Theta Sigma Phi.

FEBRUARY 23: Progress marches on. Yes, the Turner Hall girls evacuated their homes in order to move into the brand spanking new Knowles Hall while the boys grabbed the spoils by moving into Turner's rooms the following weekend.

The angelic voices of the Jubileers echoed through the University Theater at the celebration of Founders Day.

Candlelight, wine, and a beautiful companion is all the ingredients to make the evening enchanting. Bob Lovegrove and Avis Zopi sit out a dance at the Craig Hall function.

Moving day between the dorms leaves the rooms in a shambles.

MARCH 7: Two encores were awarded folksinger Josh White by the audience at the Student Union sponsored concert. While his guitar moaned the sad tune of the Negro, Mr. White added to the story in a voice of despair.

FEBRUARY 27: Under the direction of Philip J. Hess the MSU Radio-TV workshop produced a 30 minute dramatic farce, "Corporal's Punishment," starring 6 journalism majors. This production was the first of its kind to be performed here.

MARCH 9: The case of the roving jail. At the annual catch a man dance (Sadie Hawkins Dance), one highlight of the evening happened when the bearpaw in charge lost the jail—complete with prisoners. As in every year, Sadie Hawkins night turned the campus topsy-turvy with its antics of Marryin' Sam, selling empty moonshine jugs, and loaning the chaperones rocking chairs.

MARCH 13: Professor Leslie Fiedler's novel, "The Second Stone" received national publicity when its review appeared in Time Magazine.

The Three Young Men. Dick Riddle, Pat Fox, and Bob Ruby.

Lecturing at the Student Union's Tuesday's Topic, Leslie Fiedler won national publicity when his novel, "The Second Stone" was reviewed favorably by Time Magazine.

Fast thinking and quick reactions helps Lucien fool his guard to make the crowd to sit on the edge of their seats.

In the net are both the ball (put in by Ray Lucien) and both Basketball squads (put in by coach Ron Nord).

Since coach Ron Nord came to Missoula, Grizzly fans have seen a different brand of basketball performed than in the years of coach Frosty Cox. Where Cox emphasized the defense, Nord accents the positive, the offense.

Because his way a young team, only one during the season did the 'tips near perfection as a fast break ball club. In that game the team pounded out a 95-83 win over the University of North Dakota, to set a new field house record.

A capacity crowd crammed into the field house to see a double feature. Both Missoula and Montana rebounded their way down the path of victory.

Selected as the outstanding player of the year was Grizzly limelighter Ray Lucien. Ray proves that the best are always in small packages.

The Earhart Award, given to the best defensive player, was awarded to guard Tim Aldrich. Tim was also the second top scorer on the team.

In our misery, there is a light of happiness. Although the Grizzlies lost a majority of their games, the fans had the chance to see Idaho's Gus Johnson, Seattle's Eddie Miles, and Utah State's Wayne Estes and Cornell Green, all candidates for All-American Honors.

At McCall, Idaho, Montana's representation of a three man ski team won the booby prize for taking last place in the Idaho Invitational Ski Meet early in January. The Montana men entered in only $\frac{1}{2}$ of the events.

Bowling

Roy Newton and the bowling team found revenge to be satisfying after dropping MSC to the wayside 2,604 to 2,519 on February 15 in Bozeman. (The Bobcats earlier won the contest at Missoula during the MSU-MSC football game.) But revenge doesn't last long when the keglers lost to Carroll College the next day. Again Roy Newton was high scorer for the Grizzlies, with Doug Jacobsen second.

On March 22, the Grizzlies put down their rivals from MSC in their last contest of the season.

Skiing

Practicing at Snow Bowl, Mike Buckley speeds to the bottom of the run.

Skiing is just like falling off a log.

The middle of February, saw Montana's half team in the NWISA competition in White Pass, Washington. Although Buckley came through with two firsts, when the team score was totaled MSU was on the bottom.

"Loner" Mike Buckley ended fourteenth in the individual status ratings at the NCAA Ski Championships at Solitude, Utah, March 21-23.

Because it is an individual sport, it is a lonely sport. Whether you win or lose depends upon each man to do his job without any outside help.

Butterfly man, Glenn Jones, skims through the water with the ferociousness of a shark.

Swimming

Placing second on Friday night against the state universities of Utah and Idaho, Grizzly swimmers got their first taste of competition. Saturday included the University of Idaho in a quadrangular meet with Montana chugging into third position.

Copping two gold medals each, Glenn Jones, Ed Maguire, and John Aromen torpedoed Eastern Washington's hopes for victory in a dual meet here January 24. Maguire exploded the 200-yard freestyle record by going the distance in 2:01.6. The final score was 63-31.

Without having claiming private ownership to any first places, the Montana team sunk like the Titanic on January 18 against WSU at Pullman. Ed Maguire was the only member to grab a life jacket when he tied for first in the 220-yard freestyle. He set a new university record at the same time.

Wrestling

January 25 was the bears first meet. In Rexburg, Idaho the Grizzlies squeezed past Ricks College 17-14.

John Black and Dennis Meyer grappled to win, but the Bobcat's bite was too much for the young team. We lost 28-8 in Bozeman during the next day.

In their first home meet (February 8) the Grizzlies took 7 out of 9 matches to defeat Ricks Again. Pat McLemore was the only Grizzly to win by a fall.

Splitting up the middle, 4 wins and 4 losses, Washington State out pointed the Montanans by winning with pins on their home ground February 9.

At Cheney, Montana took revenge. Yielding 10 points by forfeiture Eastern Washington was smothered by the matmen from the shining mountains.

When fighting Montana's "gruesome threesome," (Black, Price, and Meyer) small Northern Montana's hopes for victory went down the tubes, twice. The scores were 38-3 and 31-7.

Wrestlers improve with experience. Montana doesn't like to be defeated. Those two facts helped MSU improve its standing with MSC. This time the Grizzlies pulled enough stamina out of Coach Swanson's bag of tricks to gain a tie with the Bobcats.

To end the season, an unofficial Big Sky wrestling Tourney was held in Bozeman March 16 and 17. MSC won, with Montana second, Weber third, and Idaho State last and least.

With a splash and a noseful of chlorinated water the tankmen compete to see who is the most drown-proof.

After a practice dip, the dolphin pulls himself out of the pool.

Being the only returning lettermen, seniors Doug Brown and Glenn Jones were chosen to represent the swim team as its co-captains.

Because of an auto accident near Butte, the team had to cancel meets with Idaho State and Utah State on February 1 and 2.

In Cheney the Grizzlies sank Eastern Washington 62-31 and then was dynamited by British Columbia by the score 56-35. Deeds and Jones were the only bears to take a first in both meets.

Everybody won in the meet against Northern Montana in Great Falls on February 26. A MSU record was smashed as Glenn Jones boomed through the 500-yard freestyle in 5:52.0.

A fourth and fifth was the best the Grizzlies could do in the Western Invitational Swimming Championships at Golden, Colorado. Montana finished sixth out of a field of six.

Intramurals

With Dick Hughes leading the way, Sigma Chi gathered up top honors in winter's intramural skiing competition.

Although an independent, Winnie Jones, won the giant slalom, the Delta Gamma girls teamed up to take overall honors in the women's half of the skiing events.

Throughout the winter, the full House team chalked up a .857 won-loss percentage to win the bowling title.

The girls try their luck at trying to put the round ball in the hoop. After tough competition, all the gals are tuckered out.

Mike Lepole swept past Luckii Ludwig to win the badminton singles, but Luckii bounced back, and teamed up with Terry Dougan to grab the doubles title ribbon.

In WRA basketball, it was Turner A over Turner B by one point 11-10. Bambie Beaumont, Sharon Flynn, Gayle Fulton, Marilyn Mowatt, Donna Robinson, Kristy Towe, Kay Spethman, and Jo Wiegner comprised the champion team.

Again Turner took the first place position—This time in bowling. Sharon Ebeling, Sheila Stokes, Kay Spethman, Kristy Towe, and Jo Wiegner toppled the pins to win undefeated.

For the second straight year, the Phi Delt fraternity stole the hoopster's title with only one blemish on their 12-1 record. Tom Sullivan led the boys for high score honor.

Whether a beginner or an old pro, skiing is one of the more popular sports at MSU.

Phi Delt, John Miller, tips for two points as everybody gets a hand in the play.

The grappler's turned out in full force to see who could handle himself the best in a man's sport. The winners were: 123 lbs. Henderson (SPE); 130 lbs. Elliott (PSK); 137 lbs. Oke (PSK); 147 lbs. Knudson (SPE) 167 lbs. Zadick (Ind.); 177 lbs. Reichert (SX) 191 lbs. Vogt (Ind.), and Hwt. Langsund (Ind.).

Coach Homer Anderson and Mike Buckley.

Buckley at Banff.

Mike Buckley

National recognition hit MSU during winter quarter in the form of All-American skier Mike Buckley. In 1962 Mike followed Rudy Ruana to be the second Montana student to be placed on the "golden dream team" in two years. At Solitude, Utah Buckley slipped and fell; because of this he rated only 16th place. But Mike is still eligible to earn a spot on the U.S. Olympic team for he recorded a first in every meet that MSU entered this year.

Delta Delta Delta

Theta Rho chapter of Delta Delta Deltas, founded at Boston University in 1888, received its charter in November, 1926. In common with 107 sister chapters across the nation, Theta Rho was hostess to faculty members at the annual Apple Polishing Party during winter quarter, and to all engaged senior women at the Pansy Tea in the spring. Other social highlights including a casual dance at the Sno-Bowl Ski Lodge, and the annual Pearl Ball.

The Tri Deltas were active in campus affairs, participating in AWS and ASMSU as chairmen and members of committees, Spurs, and Mortar Board. As is done every year, the girls worked for the Missoula Opportunity School for retarded children.

Delta Gamma

Pi Chapter of Delta Gamma has again earned the Panhellenic trophy for the highest scholastic average. On the social scene, the DG's sponsored a "Big Top Hop" and a winter formal function, "San Francisco."

Included in the social aspects of the sorority is an active foreign exchange program. Each year the Delta Gammas sponsor a foreign exchange tea. Under the auspices of the program, a foreign exchange student from Austria lived in the house this year.

Phi Delta Theta

Once again as the clock turned and the world spun on its axis, Phi Delta Theta closed the academic year with another great year. Through the door at 500 University Ave. walked great athletes and leaders of MSU. One athlete is Terry Dillon, nominated for the All-Star Team, who represented MSU at the East-West Shrine game. Among the long list of leaders is Don Robinson, the VP of ASMSU and a member of Silent Sentinel, and George Cole and Dale Schwanke Soph. Delegates to Central Board. Numerous other Phi's served ASMSU committees. Also chosen Bear-paws were E. Adams, J. Boyd, G. Cole, D. Foley, D. Huhtanen, D. Schwanke, and S. Wanderer.

Through a fine athletic director the Phi's captured many first's in intramurals and are the top contender for the all-intramural trophy.

Alpha Tau Omega

On March 3, 1923, the Karnak Club was chartered Delta Xi Chapter of Alpha Tau Omega.

Major social functions of the year included an Autumn Leaves Dance fall quarter, the formal Esquire Ball winter quarter, and a Tin Can Dance spring quarter. Many firesides and coffee hours were also on the social calendar.

Joan Bachman, KAT, was crowned Esquire Girl for this year. Carol Lockwood, Alpha Phi, and Lee Holcomb, DG, were runners-up. Angie Etchapare, KKG, was crowned pledge girl for spring quarter, 1963.

This year a Little Sisters of the Maltese Cross was organized.

Sigma Phi Epsilon

Sigma Phi Epsilon was founded at Montana State University in 1918. Outstanding in campus activities, Sig Ep members were represented in Bear Paws, Silent Sentinel, ASMSU Committee Chairman, and as officers in IFC.

Winning the coveted MSU-AFROTC Outstanding Citizenship Award marked the beginning of another progressive year for Sig Ep, whose activities included supporting the Heart Fund Drive in Missoula, a National Boys Summer Camp, and capturing intramural awards.

Highlighting fall quarter was the crowning of Queen of Hearts Raelee Bothwell at the Sweethearts Ball. Well known for their social functions, the Sig Ep's other activities included the Bowery Brawl and a pledge function.

Spring Quarter

Spring Quarter

ACTIVITIES

The dance of the octopi performed in the aquamaid pageant at the swimming pool by the sleek, graceful marines of Montana on April 20.

Spring Activities

APRIL 9: Brought to the Missoula campus by Montana's chapter of the Young Americans for Freedom, Fulton Lewis III debated against Dr. John F. Lawry on the topic of "Resolved: the House Committee on Un-American activities should be abolished." After each was through spitting fire at the other, HUAC still existed, but the Audience added a few facts to their sea of knowledge.

APRIL 10: Presenting their versions of modern dance, the leaping, prancing felines of Orchesis sleeked across the stage unfolding their theme of "Dance as an Art".

APRIL 16: In competition against MSC, the bleeders didn't bleed as well as expected. Although we drained ourselves of all the tired blood that we could, Bozeman edged us by donating 681 pints to our 657 bottles.

Dave Cloninger and his date stare dreamily at each other at the militant Military Ball.

They all came . . . even the handicapped . . . to donate their life giving blood, but we still lost our bet with the Cow College.

Chuck Miller, officiates for Theta Chi in the measurement of Joe College's muscles, so he can impress some cute coed during WUS week carnival.

APRIL 17: Yes, we're in a conference again. With the meeting of the Presidents of 6 colleges gathering in Main Hall the way was paved for the new "Big Sky" conference.

APRIL 17: In the new pool, the Enchanted Sea, a production by the Aquamaids and Dolphins, enchanted the viewers with precision movements as they journeyed on their voyage across the blue landscape.

APRIL 24: Representing Peru delegates in the Model UN at San Jose, California were Bill Burke, Joann Hassing, Mike Collins, Jerry Cunningham, Kent Price, Sharon Smith, Teresa Smith, Allen Jeska, Alice MacDonald, Gary Cunningham, and Marshall Dennis.

APRIL 22: WUS week begins with 7 days of antics or money making promotions—as the case may be. After the carnival and hike and other jaunts we made cash for foreign students and had a barrel of fun in the process.

Rick Jones—ASMSU President

Pie eating at the Sig. Alph. Olympics.

APRIL 24: At the annual Barrister's Ball, Jacque W. Best, Thomas A. Olson, and Stephen A. Olson were the honored mouthpieces when they were presented awards for outstanding work displayed in their studies.

APRIL 25: The weekly warriors marched with their dates at the Military Ball—the dance at which Janet Spitzer was crowned queen.

MAY 1: In the closest election in years, Rick Jones nosed Steve Fenter by 12 votes for the president position of ASMSU. Other officers are: Jim Richard, vice president; Bonnie Kositsky, secretary; and Bonnie Bowler, treasurer.

President Newburn presenting Merle Cole with his commission.

MAY 3: In order to establish a better MSU image to the public, outstanding students gathered at Flathead Lake at Leadership Camp to discuss the ways and means to develop Montana.

MAY 5: To speak at their special Dean Stone Night, the Journalism School invited John Oakes, editor of the New York Times to tell them about New York's newspaper blackout.

MAY 6: Cute coeds turned into fighting dogs at the Sig Alph Olympics when they participated in either the pie eating contest or the egg throw. As a team Delta Gamma took first, but Danny Lipp was the exceptional contestant.

MAY 14: The good and the bad came in one blow at the Board of Regents decreed a Phd. degree could be presented by MSU. But, at the same Helena meeting our President, H. K. Newburn resigned.

At Leadership Camp Mary Lou Cushman Helps Stamp Out Forest Fires.

Montana weather and student creativity team up to display the student body's reaction to Newburn's resignation.

The Beginning

The End

MAY 15: Trophies were presented to the muscular, curvy females during the Women's Recreational Association's Steak Fry.

MAY 18: Sponsored by a special Sociology class, the Institutional Management Conference Panel brought some of Montana's most exceptional sociologists to Missoula to discuss social problems in our society.

JUNE 3: Fathers, mothers, brothers, sisters, and all other relatives gathered to see their boy graduate from college in the field house at the 66th MSU commencement. At this ceremony 475 young bloods were cast away from their teacher into biting, fighting society to shape a world for themselves.

ATHLETICS

Bill Rice clears the bar to stiffen the competition for his opponents on Dornblazer.

With 19 returning lettermen, hopes were high in the sky before action started, but post-season notes proved that the Grizzlies were shot down more times than they bombed the enemy on their missions.

Track

Second row: Tom Simpson, Gordon Fegenkopf, Martin Ueland, Le Fay
Hope, Jerry Bjork, Warren Schmidt, Chuck Larson, Harley Lewis, and

Ed Whitelaw, Glynn DeVries, and Dave Montague.

Bill Engler posted the best discus throw in the new Big Sky Conference for the year in the Montana State College Indoor Track Meet at Bozeman April 6. Engler's heave went 146 feet 3 inches. Although a young team, Harry Adam's group posted a second place with Montana State behind Montana.

Between Utah State and US, it was the high hurdle event that proved to be a disappointment to Montana when a Utah man won.

In a Dual meet Montana trounced Western Montana by winning all firsts in the meet April 27 at Missoula. Doug Brown was the outstanding competitor by posting a 4:15 mile, shattering the stadium's previous record.

In a triangular meet in Missoula against Idaho and Utah State, Montana bettered both to come in first on May 4. Lynn Putman vaulted 13 feet 3 inches to establish a new record for both himself and the School.

Logan, Utah on May 18 saw BYU steal the blue ribbon, with MSU placing a lowly sixth place in the Beehive Invitational. Doug Brown set a new record for the 2-mile run with a time of 9:18.9 minutes.

With muscles like a Greek, Dave Montague lifts the missile toward heaven.

Bill Rice qualified for the NCAA track meet when he jumped 6'6 3/4" in a triangular meet in Moscow May 25. Montana finished behind Idaho and Weber came in third.

Before the trial begins, Bill Rice sheds all excess clothing in order to soar even higher in the high jump.

The bamboo stick is passed and the relay continues.

Montana's Doug Brown leads all the way in his record breaking 2-mile gallop.

Up & Over the bar.

In the fall, the Silvertip Cross Country squad attacked the Bozeman stronghold twice, but was repelled both times to post a no victory season.

Members of the team were: Phil Dwight, Glynn DeVries, Larry Jakub, Merv Miller, Le-Fay Hope, and Marty Ueland.

Nine seniors who were carried on the 1963 track squad were: Phil Dwight, Tom Simpson, Gordon Pagenkopf, Ed Whitelaw, Sterling Wetzschein, Glynn DeVries, Jerry Bjork, Harley Lewis, and Merv Miller.

Putnam starts the long run before hurling himself with the grace and power of an eagle.

Ray Rocene—Missoula's and Montana's god father of sports.

The job of keeping the bats in line falls to Buddy Jenkins.

Chuck Miller, Grizzly Outfielder.

The ears of Montana are tuned to Campbell Park when the University nine play ball as Sam Gilluly broadcasts.

With a short spring, comes few practices, with few practices come mistakes; and mistakes add the spice to life and the excitement to baseball. Early in the season the Grizzlies performed like vaudeville artists when three teammates gathered on third base and then scattered safely in a game against Carroll College.

Tom Croci studies the opposing pitcher's strategies since he is the next to bat.

Baseball

Hal Westberg led the small giants in both the batting column (.336 average) and the fielding department (40 put outs, 52 assists, and no errors).

Fourty-five strikeouts, a 2.034 earned run average, and a 5-6 won-lost record were recorded by Don Morrison to lead the pitchers during their exceptionally well balanced season.

Pitching was the strong point in the Grizzly baseball parade, ending with a 3.807 earned run average. The team possessed a miserable .246 batting average and .920 fielding average to bring up the rear in performance.

Milt Schwenk—Grizzly coach.

Finishing with a 11-11 record, the grizzlies had the best season since 1957. The scores of the games:

MSU	Enemy
0	Idaho 10
1	Wash. State 8
7	Columbia Basin JC 12
7	Gonzaga 3
10	Montana St. 0
6	Montana St. 4
0	Gonzaga 2
5	Gonzaga 8
10	Carroll 6
10	Carroll 6
5	Gonzaga 8

MSU	Enemy
7	Gonzaga 4
6	School of Mines 3
1	Weber 6
0	Weber 1
3	Idaho State 4
9	Idaho State 1
11	School of Mines 2
1	Carroll 3
4	Carroll 6
5	Idaho State 1
8	Idaho State 7

Four ball players who ended their baseball careers in Campbell Park this season were: pitchers Don Morrison and Carl Schwerfeger, outfielder Dan Sullivan, and second baseman Hal Westburg.

Catcher Ken Bicha tries college style to score as the Carroll masked man stops him.

Golf

The scores were recorded:

MSU
12	Gonzaga	6
5 1/2	Idaho State	6 1/2
15	Montana State	0
6 1/2	Washington State	1 1/2
14 1/2	Whitman	1 1/2
4 1/2	Eastern Washington	4 1/2
12 1/2	Gonzaga	5 1/2
15 1/2	Whitworth	2 1/2
11 1/2	Carroll	1 1/2
9	Carroll	1
9 1/2	Montana State	2 1/2
13	Eastern Montana	2

Putting and driving his way to an undefeated season in 6 contests was Jim Bryngelson to be the best of the Grizzly Bears. Jim Roberts posted a second with a 10-1 record.

Tennis

Under a new coach in the person of Butch Hendricks, the match makers went courting to post a 3-1-1 record, whipping Gonzaga 5-2, Montana State College 4-1, and Whitworth 4-3. Whitworth bounced back to tie the Grizzlies 3-3, and Eastern Washington ached Montana 5-2.

Jim Cronin bounced to the best singles record of the season with one loss out of five contests. Together the team swept 15 victories in 25 matches, but netted only 3 out of eight wins in the doubles competition.

Coach Ed Chinske smiles at successful 1963 Silvertip golfers, who are: Jim Bryngelson, Jim Freel, Don Waller, Jim Wallinder, Jack Marcure, and Jim Roberts.

Golf—a game of the old taken over by the young.

Females develop the curves essential in both body and bowling while out sporting.

Dolly, return that ball with vigor!

Intramurals

Although the Ramblin' team of Dick Curry and Gordan Gienty won the doubles championship, Sigma Phi ended on top of the heap to grab the team title in the tennis tourney.

Phi Delt rounds third and heads for home after teammates punches a hit past their helpless opponents.

Sigma Nu leaps across the snake pit to earn glory for his fraternity.

Coming through with 4 runs in the fifth inning, the Boomers won the Softball title over the Apothocaries. Pat Campbell pitched to win the game.

Ron Couch rang the victory gong after bidding and winning the horseshoe competitions. After placing the singles in his lap, Couch teamed with Jim Basolo to take the doubles, also.

In girls' tennis Barbara Matz placed first in the singles while Alice Billie and Luckii Ludwig netted the doubles.

Ted Zelio, of the ping pong club, paddled the light-headed ball enough to steal the intramural table tennis honors for this year.

An independent Ram team swept past all comers to dash away with the university's intramural track blue ribbon. Lee Swanson placed highest on the individual scale with the achievement of nine points.

Endurance, and more endurance followed by exhaustion after the race of the milers.

Putnam preparing for a jump.

Doug Brown & Lynn Putnam

Both outstanding Montana High school athletes, Lynn Putnam, from Opheim, and Doug Brown (from Red Lodge) decided Montana was for them and they were for Montana.

Doug Brown won national recognition when he won the Los Angeles Golden West Invitational by shattering the 2-mile record for high school students. This summer, after smashing many university records, Doug placed second in the NCAA track finals in the 3-mile run.

In 1962, Lynn Putnam was Montana's first Junior Olympic Gold Medal Winner when he vaulted 13'2" in an AAU meet at Choteau, Montana. At the University, Lynn set a new record for both himself and the school when he pole vaulted 13'3".

I have tried to modernize the style of the book this year with a new type of paper and a free design layout for pictures. I hope that there are not too many mistakes as we tried to double-check every section.

I wish to thank Irving Lloyd and Joe Holly for the division page pictures; Tom duMas for the basic cover idea; and Joe Holly also for his wonderful job on the senior section. Also many thanks to Bruce McGowan, Joe, and Cyrile Van Duser for the printing they did during the summer. I also wish to thank the American Yearbook Company for their patience and prompt service.

John Nelson
